General Information for International Participants:

- Visas

Visitors from certain countries must be issued visas by the Japanese consulate in those countries. For further details, please contact your local Japanese consular office or your travel agent. For a list of Japanese consular offices worldwide, please visit: http://www.mofa.go.jp/about/emb_cons/mofaserv.html

- Insurance

The organizer cannot accept responsibility for accidents. Participants are encouraged to obtain travel insurance (medical, personal accident and luggage) in their home country prior to departure.

- Money

It is recommended that you obtain Japanese yen in cash upon your arrival at the international airport. At the international airports, such as Narita and Haneda currency exchange counters are usually open during the time of flight arrivals. There are Citibank ATMs at the international airports. Foreign credit, debit and cash cards can be used at ATMs of Japan Post Bank and 7-Eleven convenience stores, etc. There are Post Bank ATMs in the Hiyoshi Station.

Please note that even on the 24-hour ATMs, transactions with some foreign financial institutions are not available during the weekend and night time.

For precise information please refer to:

http://www.jp-bank.japanpost.jp/en/ias/en_ias_index.html

<http://www.sevenbank.co.jp/intlcard/index2.html>

Credit cards are generally accepted at hotels and major stores. However, there are not always facilities for credit card transactions at small stores.

- Internet

Internet access is available at the venue and in on-campus accommodation, if you bring your own PC and LAN cable (Ethernet cable). For further information please ask the forum staff.

- Japan Rail Pass

If you are resident outside Japan and planning further travel after or before the Forum, you can take advantage of the Japan Rail Pass. This pass covers virtually all Japan Railways (JR) trains including Shinkansen (Super Express) trains, airport express shuttle trains, etc. The Japan Rail Pass can be purchased only outside Japan. For details please contact travel agencies at your location or visit the Web site

Donation Request:

The Musicological Society of Japan has been making fund-raising efforts, mostly from its annual budget, in order to organize international academic meetings such as this forum. To further promote activities of this kind, the IFYM 2010 Committee requests all those who are concerned with the future of musicology to make a contribution towards the organization of the forum. Please refer to the Bank Account quoted above, or inquire to the committee for the other methods of payment. Even a small contribution will be greatly appreciated.
